

PSI: Capture Document Archiving

Advantage Technologies is a Platinum Partner of PSIGEN Software, makers of PSI:Capture. PSI:Capture is leading data capture software that provides unprecedented flexibility. It begins with the ability to capture from any device or type of image through cutting edge OCR, OMR and IMR engines to automate processing and indexing functionality and finally with direct migration of data and images to nearly 50 different leading Enterprise Content Management (ECM) solutions or document repositories, including MS SharePoint and all Open Text ECM Solutions. PSI:Capture is dedicated to recognition results and a deep set of features and functionality to manage all your data and document capture needs.

PSI:Capture is focused on the Capture Challenge, beginning with input, into processing and through migration of data and images. The feature set delivers leading edge recognition technology and the most flexible output options in the industry. Understanding your process and needs are unique, PSI:Capture fits into any workflow or automation application. Contact a Document Workflow specialist at Advantage Technologies for a customized solution consultation or review of your document workflow needs.
